Hepatitis Cure & Eradication: Delivering therapy on an individual and society level – The role of WHO

Stefan Wiktor
Team Lead Global Hepatitis Programme

World Health Organization
Hepatitis landscape: The five ‘Needs’ to get to elimination

- Better data
- More engagement
- More funding
- National hepatitis planning
- More action
Data quality of hepatitis-C prevalence studies
Distribution of published estimates of HCV prevalence

Number of citations vs. Number of citations categories:
- 180m
- 170m
- 160m
- 150m
- 130-170m
- 80m
- Other

Courtesy of S. Kumble and P. Easterbrook
WHO 2012 budget allocation per death as estimated in GBD study

Lozano et al, Global Burden of Disease Study 2010 Lancet 2012
Member States with National Viral Hepatitis Plans (NVHP)
n=22
Estimated chronic HCV prevalence, diagnosis and treatment rates in 2013

Dore J al. J Viral Hep (2014),
WHO’s role in addressing the ‘Five Needs’

Global action
- Global estimates
  Global Report
- Global Hepatitis Strategy
- Resource mobilization
- National Hepatitis Planning Initiative
  resources
- Multi-stakeholder engagement

Country action
- Normative work
  - Surveillance
  - Reporting
- World Hepatitis Day
- National Hepatitis Planning Initiative
  Country work
- More action
  - Normative work
  - Technical assistance

Better data
More engagement
More funding
National hepatitis planning
More action
Enhanced engagement at WHO

- JANUARY: WHO Executive Board meeting
- FEBRUARY: Strategic and Technical Advisory Meeting
- MARCH: Global Partners Meeting on Hepatitis
- APRIL: Launch of HCV treatment guidelines
- MAY: World Health Assembly – Hepatitis Resolution
- JUNE: HBV treatment guidelines meeting

Meeting with pharmaceutical and diagnostics companies